

KCYC VOLUNTEER DESCRIPTIONS FOR 2010

Runner

The Volunteer Runner will assist the volunteer coordinator in all aspects. This may include relieving volunteers, substituting for volunteers who are unable to attend, helping volunteers find their designated locations and assisting with various volunteer issues that arrive. This person should be able to walk or stand for extended periods of time.

Registration

Those working registration will be checking in all our volunteers, speakers and helping with room key distribution. A good attitude and the ability to sit during your shift are the only requirements.

Room Monitors

Room monitors are responsible for providing assistance to conference attendees and speakers in rooms as needed. A willingness to help with a variety of circumstances and the ability to sit or stand during your shift are required.

Set-Up and Clean-Up

We need help setting up the conference rooms and main stage area on Friday night as well as cleaning up on Sunday. For this job, you will need the ability to lift and carry heavy items such as chairs, stage equipment, etc.

Production Assistance

Have you worked behind the scenes at a play or in theater before? We could use your help with our stage and all that goes with it. Be sure you can stand for extended periods and lift heavy items before signing up for this.

Hospitality

We need people to help with hospitality by making sure our speakers and volunteers are comfortable and well cared for. You need a welcoming attitude to help with this job.

Service Project Assistance

On Sunday morning, our youth will be participating in a service project. We need help setting up and assisting the youth with the project. The ability to stand during your shift and lift items may be required.

Crowd Control

Additional people needed to help throughout the conference to help direct groups to and from the large group sessions, to workshops and breaks. We are in need of people during the day and during the night to help keep the peace during Lights Out time at the Hotel.

Adorers

Come spend time with the Lord in the Adoration Chapel we need volunteers to sit with Jesus throughout the conference. Sign up to help from 9:00am on Saturday thru 2:00pm on Sunday, including overnight hours.
